

Andrew Corp. HELIAX® Connector Attachment Training Course

Talley, Inc. is proud to host a FREE Andrew Corporation Institute training course for connector attachment. More and more carriers are mandating that technicians installing their systems complete technical training. Upon completion of this Andrew Institute training you will be registered with Andrew Corp. as having completed their connector institute course work (certifications are valid for three years). The connector certification course will be held on July 27, 2010 from 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. (lunch will be provided). The certification course will be held at:

McKenna Event Center
801 West San Antonio Street
New Braunfels, TX 78130

Each attendee will learn:

- How all the components work together
- Thorough hands-on practice, learn to properly assemble connectors and accessories
- Learn the proper techniques of installing HELIAX® coaxial cables
- Connector attachments for L4PNM-H, L4PDM-RC, F4PDMV2-C and more
- Accessories
